Approved For Release 2001/04/24 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000900130015-4

CONFIDENTIAL

29 January 1954

THROUGH: Acting Deputy Director (Administration) SIBJECT: Claim for Financial Loss by
1. Reference is made to the memorandum of 21 December 1953 from Chief, Foreign Documents Division, 00 submitting a claim for financial loss by 2. The Property Survey Board at its meeting of 26 January 1954 gave consideration to this claim. It was the Board's decision that this claim is not allowable under CIA Regulation Loss of Personal Property, in that the regulation does not provide for reinbursement for expenses incurred in proparation of overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders. 3. This problem, namely, financial loss suffered by Agency personnel in preparation for an overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders before they actually depart for that overseas assignment has been the subject of study by the General Counsel, Comptroller and other interested areas of the Agency. It appears that within the framework of our regulations there is no anthority for adjustment or reimbursement for expenses incurred under these circumstances, except that which may be granted by the Director under his special authority with confidential funds. This problem warrants attention in that employees should be permitted to avail themselves of a procedure for submission of claims for adjustment of unusual expenses incurred under these circumstances. li. In the claim submitted by it would appear that he could be reimbursed as a travel expense for item #1, passport and passport picture ($5,00). The other items, however, do not represent a loss to the individual in that he has possession of the items, or the use of the imporvements as in the case of the automobile or the equivalent in money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears to be no regulation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred	MEMORANIUM FOR:	Assistant Director for Operations
1. Reference is made to the memorandum of 21 December 1953 from Chief, Foreign Documents Division, 00 submitting a claim for financial loss by 2. The Property Survey Board at its meeting of 28 January 1954 gave consideration to this claim. It was the Board's decision that this claim is not allowable under CIA Regulation Claims For Loss of Personal Property, in that the regulation does not provide for reimbursement for expenses incurred in preparation of overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders. 3. This problem, namely, financial loss suffered by Agency personnel in preparation for an overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders before they actually depart for that overseas assignment has been the subject of study by the General Counsel, Comptroller and other interested areas of the Agency. It appears that within the framework of our regulations there is no authority for adjustment or reimbursement for expenses incurred under these circumstances, except that which may be granted by the Director under his special authority with confidential funds. This problem warrants attention in that employees should be permitted to avail themselves of a procedure for submission of claims for adjustment of unusual expenses incurred under these circumstances. li. In the claim submitted by it would appear that he could be reimbursed as a travel expense for item #1, passport and passport picture ($5.00). The other items, however, do not represent a loss to the individual in that he has possession of the items, or the use of the imporvements as in the case of the automobile or the equivalent in money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears to be no regulation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred	THROUGH:	Acting Deputy Director (Administration)
2. The Property Survey Board at its meeting of 28 Jamary 1954 gave consideration to this claim. It was the Board's decision that this claim is not allowable under CIA Regulation Claims For Claims For Loss of Personal Property, in that the regulation does not provide for reimbursement for expenses incurred in preparation of overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders. 3. This problem, namely, financial loss suffered by Agency personnel in preparation for an overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders before they actually depart for that overseas assignment has been the subject of study by the General Counsel, Comptroller and other interested areas of the Agency. It appears that within the framework of our regulations there is no authority for adjustment or reimbursement for expenses incurred under these circumstances, except that which may be granted by the Director under his special authority with confidential funds. This problem warrants attention in that employees should be permitted to avail themselves of a procedure for submission of claims for adjustment of unusual expenses incurred under these circumstances. h. In the claim submitted by the world appear that he could be reimbursed as a travel expense for item #1, passport and passport picture (%5.00). The other items, however, do not represent a less to the individual in that he has possession of the items, or the use of the improvements as in the case of the automobile or the equivalent in money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears to be no regulation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred	SUBJECT:	Claim for Financial Loss by	25X1A9a this claim is not allowable under CIA Regulation Claims For Loss of Personal Property, in that the regulation does not provide for reimbursement for expenses incurred in preparation of overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders. 3. This problem, namely, financial loss suffered by Agency personnel in preparation for an overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders before they actually depart for that overseas assignment has been the subject of study by the General Counsel, Comptroller and other interested areas of the Agency. It appears that within the framework of our regulations there is no anthority for adjustment or reimbursement for expenses incurred under these circumstances, except that which may be granted by the Director under his special anthority with confidential funds. This problem warrants attention in that employees should be permitted to avail themselves of a procedure for submission of claims for adjustment of unusual expenses incurred under these circumstances. 1. In the claim submitted by it would appear that he could be reimbursed as a travel expense for item #1, passport and passport picture ($5.00). The other items, however, do not represent a loss to the individual in that he has possession of the items, or the use of the imporvements as in the case of the automobile or the equivalent in money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears to be no regulation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred
3. This problem, namely, financial loss suffered by Agency personnel in preparation for an overseas assignment and subsequent cancellation of orders before they actually depart for that overseas assignment has been the subject of study by the General Counsel, Comptroller and other interested areas of the Agency. It appears that within the framework of our regulations there is no anthority for adjustment or reimbursement for expenses incurred under these circumstances, except that which may be granted by the Director under his special authority with confidential funds. This problem warrants attention in that employees should be permitted to avail themselves of a procedure for submission of claims for adjustment of unusual expenses incurred under these circumstances. 4. In the claim submitted by it would appear that he could be reimbursed as a travel expense for item #1, passport and passport picture ($5.00). The other items, however, do not represent a loss to the individual in that he has possession of the items, or the use of the imporvements as in the case of the automobile or the equivalent in money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears to be no resulation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred	gave consideration this claim is no loss of Personal	ot allowable under CIA Regulation Claims For Property, in that the regulation does not provide the regulation of overseas	25X1A
passport picture ($5.00). The other items, however, do not represent a less to the individual in that he has possession of the items, or the use of the imporvements as in the case of the automobile or the equivalent in money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears to be no regulation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred	3. This prepared in preamed in preamed in preamed in preamed in preamed in preamed in assignment has Comptroller and that within the for adjustment circumstances, under his speciments attent	roblem, namely, financial loss suffered by Agency sparation for an overseas assignment and subsequent orders before they actually depart for that overseas been the subject of study by the General Counsel, other interested areas of the Agency. It appears framework of our regulations there is no anthority or reimbursement for expenses incurred under these except that which may be granted by the Director ial authority with confidential funds. This problem tion in that employees should be permitted to avail an ancesture for submission of claims for adjustment
	li. In the could be reimbt passport pictural loss to the the use of the equivalent in to be no result	it would appear that he arsed as a travel expense for item #1, passport and re ($5.00). The other items, however, do not represent individual in that he has possession of the items, or imporvements as in the case of the automobile or the money on the sale of the typewriter. There appears ation which permits reimbursement of expenses incurred

Chairman, Property Survey Board

25X1A9a

Attachment SO:RLB:pam (1-29-54) cc: Addressee ADD/A

25X1A9a

25X1A9a

Approved For Release 2001/04/2005-100-04718A000900130015-4